PUBLIC MASS MEETING CALLED

EDITORIAL

YOU CAN GIVE THEM LIFE . . . OR DEATH

All too often in the case of a great tragedy such as the Korean War, the majority of us not directly affected by the events taking place on the battlefields tend to put the filth and horror of the foxholes in a far corner of our minds and try to go about living in a normal way. This reaction is a common psychological process. Those of us who do not have sons or brothers or fathers in Korea have no desire to mix thoughts of battle wounds with worries about balancing the budget or planning economical meals.

Yet the fact remains that more than 200,000 American men are fighting and dying with little moral aid from the rest of us. We cannot dismiss the subject with a banter of platitudes about being grateful to these men for protecting our shores from aggression or dying for the American way of life. The situation demands more concrete action. We have willingly invested our money to provide these men with arms and supplies and we have not complained too loudly when our tax money has been spent in other countries to prevent the occurence of another Korea. Still, one of the greatest needs—the need for blood for transfusions to wounded and dying men, has been grossly neglected by most of us.

The need has become so great that men in army and navy camps throughout the nation are willingly donating their blood. Soldiers on the way to the front in Korea are lining up to give blood so that it may be returned to them when their need is greatest.

What has Campbell done to help the men who are fighting because they were ordered to . . . whose only dream is to return to the daily problems which we consider so great? The record is not impressive.

A quota of 75 pints of blood was set the last time a mobile Red Cross unit visited Campbell. Nineteen persons signed up to donate and several others signified their intentions of donating at that time. The record . . . three pints of Campbell blood went to Korea.

Next Thursday the Red Cross Mobile Blood Bank will again visit Campbell with a quota of 100 pints of blood. For a community of more than 10,00 to repeat the shameful record of the last visit is to admit that we are not worthy of having our battles fought for us.

Remember that a dying man asks only for life . . . you can give it to him.

KERR SUBMITS REPORT ON PUBLIC WORKS DEPT. FOR CITY OF CAMPBELL

Leslie Kerr, member of the committee for taxation and revenue of the Committee for Campbell incorporation, submitted the following report this week on the costs of a public works department for the city of Campbell. Text of the report follows:

It is important to bear in mind the range of municipal public works services to be performed by a city like Campbell. The activities assigned to the public works department, or its equivalent, vary from city to city in California.

The responsibilities ordinarily allotted to this department of a small city generally cover streets, bridges, sewers, sewage disposal, water supply, sidewalks, refuse removal and disposition, street-name signs, and house numbering.

It is suggested that, in addition to the foregoing, the public works department of Campbell also be responsible for the maintenance of all public buildings and grounds, parks and playgrounds, city shops and garages, street lighting, electrical and other utilities, inspection and regulation of buildings and appurtenances, street trees, and regulatory inspectional services other than business licenses which is to be under jurisdiction of the chief of police.

Yes, it is admitted that all of these services are not presently required in Campbell. But, as the need for more detailed attention becomes essential and the physical utilities become more complicated and more numerous, it is, of course, practical to make reassignments of responsibility.

The reader should understand that the cost of such services as repairs to sidewalks, refuse removal, regulatory inspections, etc., are assessed against property owners and others. Thus the city budget is reduced accordingly.

The estimate of funds necessary to maintain the streets of Campbell during first year of operation, after incorporation, is placed at around $1.15 per unit of population. This estimate is based on present condition of the streets, and on cost experience of 14 other California cities incorporated during the 1946-1950 period. Theoretically, at least, an allowance of $1.00 per capita for first year of operation seems to be ample when the streets, as a whole, are in reasonable repiar.

Per capita costs are often cited as a measurement of efficiency, although, admittedly, deficient as a criterion. A city with a high per capita cost running for long periods of time, is frequently looked upon as inefficient and wasteful.

Given equal efficiency, the per capita costs of services in cities increase in proportion to the extent and quality of service. Given equal extent and quality of service, per capita cost figures afford only a rough yardstick for measuring what the citizens of Campbell may expect to receive for their money when compared with results of other cities. Yet, the quantity, nature, and results of the work, as well as the conditions under which it is performed, must all be considered if valid conclusions are to be drawn from such figures.

Details covering cost experience of the 14 cities are:

City	Population 4-1-1950	Street Expense	City	Population 4-1-1950	Street Expense
Barstow	6,130	$1,863	Kerman	1,549	$1,278
Brentwood	1,642	5,500	Live Oak	1,759	1,811
Coachella	2,743	—	Orange Cove	2,390	3,832
Folsom	1,706	1,339	Pismo Beach	1,425	1,130
Galt	1,319	165	Port Hueneme	3,025	2,227
Gonzales	1,818	2,762	Portola	2,237	2,283
Greenfield	1,308	1,544
Guadalupe	2,429	925	Total, 6 cities	12,385	12,561
		—	Average	—	1.01
Total, 8 cities	19,095	14,098	Total, 14 cities	31,480	26,659
Average	—	0.73	Average	—	0.85

The town of Campbell has no equipment, tools, facilities, buildings, nor a work-yard suitable and necessary for operating a street department. Consequently, provision must be made along these lines before actual street operations can begin.

In view of the good physical condition now prevailing and the probability of favorable circumstances continuing for a year or longer, the initial requirement need not be comprehensive nor costly. As for example:

New pick-up truck	$1,800
Rental for work-yard	250
Temporary building	175
Hand tools, etc.	175
Supplies and materials	500
Initial cost	$2,900

The estimates are based on an assumption that normal conditions and necessity will continue during first year of city operation. In case of an unexpected contingency or emergency, the solutinon will be to contact and secure assistance from the public works department of Santa Clara County or a nearby city. Or, engage the services of a commercial operator. Justification for immediate purchase of a complement of equipment is not apparent.

The previous proposed budget for the public works department include:

Mrs. Josephine Biller, 54 Rincon, was appointed clerk of the festival by Chairman A. J. Emery this week. Mrs. Biller will oversee the collection of votes for queen candidates and issue weekly reports on the vote totals.

Residents may vote for candidates of their choice with tickets given out by participating merchants with each dollar purchase. Votes received at that time will be placed in containers marked with queen candidates names at the merchant's place of business. Anyone may vote for a candidate by requesting votes after making purchases at participating merchants business establishments. Merchants participating in the contest may be identified by signs in their windows stating "Queen Contest Votes Given Here."

Two other queen candidates, Marialice Grim, sponsored by the St. Lucy's Mens Club and Marlene Strong, sponsored by the American Legion, have been entered in the contest. A fourth candidate, Marilyn McCoy, sponsored by the Orchard City Grange, has withdrawn from the contest.

A grand prize of $100 cash will be awarded to the winning candidate at the coronation ceremonies on the opening night of the festival October 12. The event, which is being sponsored by the committee for Campbell incorporation in an effort to procure funds to post with the county board of supervisors to guarantee cost of a special incorporation election, is being held at the Campbell Grammar school athletic field on October 12 and 13.

Other features of the festival will include booths managed and sponsored by various clubs and organizations, dancing, refreshments and contests and games.

Rules for the queen contest state that candidates must be sponsored by a local club, organization or similar body. Votes are obtained from participating Campbell area merchants with each purchase of $1.00 or more at the rate of one vote per dollar purchase. Any person may vote for queen of their choice by making purchases in stores of participating merchants.

PROCLAMATION

In the light of recent international events, our cherished right of freedom of the press takes on added importance. For as we consider the ugly pattern of aggression by forces seeking to dominate the world, we find that the gagging of the press is invariably a prelude to the destruction of free government.

We have reason to take pride in the alert and vigorous press that has been built up in our Nation under our traditional freedom of thought and expression. We cannot, however, assume that it will always be that way. In our own hemisphere, we have witnessed the death of La Prensa, one of the world's great newspapers. Elsewhere, we have seen the perils that beset the men and women of our free press in thir pursuit of the truth. We have the example of William N. Oatis, now incarcerated behind the Iron Curtain in a mockery of justice by oppressors who know that the printing of the truth interferes with their aim to destroy individual rights and freedom.

In view of these and other disturbing events in the world today, it is appropriate that the slogan "Your Newspaper Lights the Way of Freedom" has been selected for the twelfth annual observance of National Newspaper Week. In cooperation with this program of the free press of our Nation, I, Earl Warren, Governor of California, do hereby proclaim the period October 1st to 8th, 1951, as NEWSPAPER WEEK in California. I urge that all the people of our State take the opportunity durin gthis period to become more familiar with the services and facilities offered by their community newspapers and their contribution to the preservation of our way of life.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 14th day of September, A.D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-One.

EARL WARREN,
Governor of California.

Sixteen-Year-Old Campbell Girl Reported Missing Since Monday

No word has been received from Betty Allen, 16-year-old Campbell girl, missing since Monday morning. The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Allen, 149 Dillon, has been missing since Monday morning when neighbors stated they saw her enter a cab at her home between 9 and 10 o'clock. The Bureau of Inspectors of the sheriff's office stated that they checked with the cab company which was reported to have picked her up and found that a girl answering the description of Betty Allen had been taken to the Campbell bus depot. She told the cab driver that she was planning to stay with girl friends in San Jose for a few days and then journey to San Diego where she had a position as companion to an elderly lady. The Sheriff's Dept. states that they have issued an all points bulletin but that no further leads have developed.

Mrs. Allen stated that her daughter had left a note saying that she had left to take a job as companion to an elderly lady but had not said where she was going. The note said she would write home in a few days.

She said that the girl had been depressed for several months over the annulment of her marriage to Thermon Herrill, 18, of Campbell.

"I have no idea where Betty has gone," Mrs. Allen stated. "She left while we were at work with only $18 on her person. None of her girl friends have seen her since she left."

The girl had left school following spring semester. She was a junior at Campbell High School. Mrs. Allen said that the girl had expressed dissatisfaction with her parent's request that she return to school and was not employed at the time of her disappearance.

Community Service Fund Drive Gets Under Way With $14,000 Goal

Residential solicitations for the Campbell Community Service Fund drive will begin Monday night with a kick-off dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Volunteer solicitors have been assigned various units under the direction of unit coordinnators.

Purpose of the the annual drive is to collect funds to aid in the financing and promotion of various local organizations. Organizations this year are the library, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, Visiting Nurses Association and the Family Service Association. Approximately 99 percent of the 1951 $14,000 goal will go directly to these local organizations. All workers are unpaid volunteers with the only expenses being a minor amount for office supplies and secretarial work.

First reports on solicitations in the Community Service Fund Drive showed a total of $591.20 in contributions from Hunt's Cannery and their employees. Of this amount, employees donated $341.20 and the cannery contributed $250. E. W. Barnes, chairman of the drive, stated that he was highly pleased at the response shown. "This is the type of response which will make the drive a success," he stated.

The Campbell area has been broken down into five major units consisting of Campbell, under the direction of Mrs. Henry Parysek; Cambrian, under the direction of Mrs. Lucy Mitchell; Moreland, under the direction of Mrs. George Robertson; San Tomas, under the direction of Ed Tablak; and Moorpark, under the direction of Mrs. Eugen Andres.

Business solicitations got underway last Monday morning following a kick-oof breakfast in the high school cafeteria. No total is available for business solicitations at this time.

E. W. Barnes, chairman of this year's fund campaign, issued an appeal to residents of the area who work in other localities to make their contributions locally rather than at their place of business. He stated that local contributions go directly to the aid of local youth groups and other worthy organizations whereas contributions in other areas go toward the aid of groups not connected with the Campbell district.

OVER 950 PROPERTY OWNERS SIGN PETITIONS CALLING FOR SPECIAL ELECTION ON INCORPORATION ISSUE

L. W. Harmon, chairman of the committee for Campbell incorporation, announced this week that a mass meeting will be held in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m., October 8, to discuss the question of incorporation for Campbell.

The meeting, Harmon stated, will include speakers for both sides of the issue and will be followed by a question and answer period in which the audience may participate. A moderator, to be announced at a later date, will preside over the meeting.

Neither proponents nor opponents of the issue have selected speakers for meeting at this date. Harmon stated however, that the meeting would be conducted in an orderly manner to allow those attending to learn as much about the proposal as possible. He also stated that several attorneys will be on hand to answer questions of a legal nature which pertain to the incorporation move.

Harmon stated that the meeting will be the culmination of weeks of work on the part of various committees who have been investigating the problems and advantages of incorporation. "For many weeks now, committees have been gathering information pertaining to taxation, police and fire protection, city government and administration, school districts and, in general, advantages and disadvantages which are to be found in incorporating a new city. We feel that it is time to pass this information on to the residents of Campbell so that they may know the full facts of the case when they go to the polls to decide the issue."

Other developments on the incorporation scene include a total of 950 signers to petitions calling for a special election. Mrs. Charles Chubb, chairman of the sub-committee for petitions, announced that she anticipates an early submission of petitions to the county supervisors.

The general meeting, latest development in the proposal for incorporation, culminates several months work which had its formal beginning in the mailing of sample ballots for a straw vote to decide the sentiment of residents toward incorporation. Results of the ballot indicated that residents of Campbell area favored the move by a ratio of 6 to 1.

Following the ballot, a general committee was formed and L. W. Harmon was appointed chairman. Sub-committees were appointed and proposed boundaries were submitted to the county boundaries commission for their approval. Shortly after approval by that body, proponents of the issue submitted a revised boundary excluding the Cambrian district. Harmon stated that this move was made because of the financial problems which might arise should the incorporated city of Campbell include that area. In addition, he stated that residents of the Cambrian district had voiced their disapproval of becoming part of the proposed city. He said that the committee for incorporation had no desire to force any area into the proposed city against the wishes of the residents. The county boundaries commission approved the amended boundaries with the recommendation to the board of supervisors that no portion of the new boundaries be excluded.

At present, a committee under the direction of A. J. Emery, is making preparations for a fall Harvest Festival to raise necessary funds to guarantee costs of a special election. Emery stated that funds received will be used for no purpose other than to defray the costs of the special election. "Profits from the festival will be posted with the county, as prescribed by law, to guarantee costs of the special election."

Col. E. T. Barco, Jr., Returns From Tour Of Greece As Army Advisor

Col. E. Terrill Barco, Jr., U. S. Armay, of 12571 Paseo Cerro, has recently returned from a year and a half tour of duty with the U. S. Army in Greece. Barco acted in an advisory capacity to the Corps Commander of a Greek army unit, offering advice and counsel in military matters. During his tour, he was stationed at various places on the Grecian peninsula including the province of Thessaly, which is situated at the foot of Mt. Olympus, legendary home of the Greek gods of mythology.

Col. E. Terrill Barco, Jr.

Barco described the people of Greece as having much in common with Americans. "They are vastly individualistc and think of democracy much the same as wed do." He stated that the Greeks are extremely family conscious and maintain close family ties. "Even third and fourth cousins are considered close. Often, if one or two members of a family leaves one political party for another, the whole family will follow their move."

The Saratoga colonel stated that the people are suffering from an acute housing shortage and food shortage. In addition, the majority of the populace is extremely poor and find suitable clothing difficult to obtain. "In spite of these problems," Barco said, "the Greeks are facing their situation courageously and meeting problems much much better than would normally be expected.

"The people are not an aggressive race, but are good fighters when it is necessary for them to fight. They seem to have mastered the problem of how to get along with different groups in their country. It is a common sight to see different factions of political, military and religious circles standing side by side during a parade or some other public function."

He described the Greeks as a deeply religious people and stated that wherever Americans establish military camps, the Greek members of the unit erect religious shrines in the near vicinity.

The Greeks have become fond of Americans and will often stop their work in the fields to talk to them. "The presence of Americans seems to give the people a feeling of security."

Several Greek cities have adopted American cities and exchange gifts with the city of their adoption. Col. Barco cited the city of Trikkla, stating that inhabitants of that city adopted the city of Tucson, Arizona, and were in turn adopted by the American city. "Both cities exchange gifts and students."

He stated that the countryside near Volos, Thessaly, was similar to that of the Monterey Peninsula with its hilly brown fields and circular bay.

During his stay in Greece, the Saratogan attended an annual fair on the outskirts of Larisa. Inhabitants come from all over the countryside to sell, trade and barter their goods. It is common to see many gypsies in attendance.

Barco was stationed at Camp Wood, Texas, before making his tour of duty in Greece. He returned from Greece to New York and stopped at Washington, D. C. to visit a friend, Gen. Jenkins, before returning to his wife and family on Paseo Cerro. Col. Barco's father, also a colonel, retired, in the U. S. Army, lives in Saratoga.

Newspaper Week Observed By Kiwanis Club

Campbell Kiwanis Club in conjunction with all other Kiwanis clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska, and Hawaii will observe National Newspaper Week, October 1 to 8, by inviting publishers, editors and reporters to meetings designed primarily to draw public attention to the importance of maintaining freedom of the press.

Kiwanis International has participated in the observance of National Newspaper Week almost from its inception 12 years ago. Newspaper Association Managers, Inc. ,sponsor of the week, announced recently that this year's slogan will be "Your Newspaper Lights the Way of Freedom."

Kiwanis International, according to its president, Claude B. Hellman, Baltimore, Md., urges each of its clubs, now numbering more than 3,300, to observe the week because the daily and weekly press exercises "vigorous leadership in alerting the public against corruption, fraud, and other insiduous elements which attempt to undermine our moral and democratic way of life."

President Hallman said that within the past year totalitarian governments have silenced the free press, imprisoned newspaper personnel, and repressed political information in their efforts to revoke the freedom of the citieznS. "In the United States and Canada, we are grateful that our Fourth Estate preserves our liberty by its constant vigilance and contributions to an informed public," he said.

Buc Squad Greatly Improved, Coaches Tell Kiwais Club

Members of the Buc coaching staff told the Campbell Kiwanis Club Tuesday that this year's grid squad is vastly improved over last year's and that the staff expects to win at least half of their 1951 contests.

Members of the staff expressed their belief that next year's squad will be even better because of the excellent material which will be coming up from the frosh team.

Larry Hill, principal of the high school and president of the club, introduced the speakers and stated that the purpose of football at Campbell was not to build up a powerhouse of a few select players but to give the largest number of students possible training in the rudiments of sportsmanship and teamwork. "We have 140 boys signed up for football this year and it has always been our policy to accept any player who turns out, regardless of his ability. In this manner, we hope to train a large number of students in good sportsmanship and cooperation. This factor of the program is even more important than winning the games."

Following the speakers, Ralph Noddin entertained members with a number of "fish" stories.

An announcement of the new directors and officers of the club will be made at their meeting next week.

Dear Sir:

The Seventh Annual Santa Clara County Fair, September 10 thru 16, is now history. We are especially appreciative to you and your staff for your cooperation in advising the public of this greatest of all non-profit, community-wide annual celebrations.

As a result of your generous cooperation, 203,022 visitors came through our turnstiles. This figure compares with 191,022 in 1950 and 174,687 in 1949. in view of this growth, it truly indicates that our Fair has become one of the "Big Three" in California.

Likewise, our total number of exhibitors passed the 2,500 mark as compared to 2,213 in 1950.

Our aims have been, and will always be, to present a "balanced" county fair in which everyone in our county can become actively interested. It is the "show window" of our great county.

Again, accept our most sincere thanks for your generous and very helpful cooperation—it's what it takes to make for a successful Fair!

Cordially,
Russell E. Pettit, manager.

Famed Old Rifle Found In San Jose

A famed "One of One Thousand" Winchester Model 1873 rifle—only 33 of which have been located throughout the world—is owned by Vincent Sparagna, 155 Dale Drive, San Jose.

Valued by collector-owners as high as $5,000, "One of the One Thousand" brought as little as $4.50 until rescued from obscurity during the past year.

The unmatched firearm is the extremely scarce premium-accuracy variety of the favored Winchester Model 1873 lever-action repeating rifle. The model 1873 is justly famed in American history as the "Buffalo Bill Rifle" and "The Gun That Won the West."

Mr. Sparagna's rifle, which he acquired from F. Ralph Rambo 312 Myrtle street, San Jose, has been reported to James C. Hartley, director of research of the Winchester Repeating Arms Company division of Olin Industries, Inc., New Haven, Conn.

The "One of One Thousand" rifles were the most accurate of each 1,000 model 1873's manufactured. Company records show that just 135 of the unmatched rifles were made out of a total production of 720,610 Madel 1873's.

The scarce old rifles may be identified by the words, "One of One Thousand," or the figures, "1 of 1,000," engraved on top of the barrel just ahead of the receiver (the housing of the gun's mechanism).

Mr. Sparagna's rifle was shipped from the Winchester factory on January 14, 1876.

The previous owner of the elaborately-engraved old rifle reports that it was given to his father, F. H. Rambo, about 60 years ago, by a brother of the father, Edward Rambo, who was a West Coast representative of the Winchester company at that time.

Mr. Rambo reports that the rifle was used for hunting throughout the Pacific Coast States and Arizona and is still is "shootin' condition."

Spartans Prepare For Battle With Cards Tomorrow

Hoping to rebound from the crushing defeat at the hands of USF, the San Jose State Spartans this week turn to another tough one—Stanford at Palo Alto at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Coach Bob Bronzen has shaken up both the offensive and defensive lineups in an effort to field a more aggressive team than the Spartan combination which was bowled over by USF.

The starting offensive team will include six new faces. Tackles Jack Adams and Sal Cardinalli, Guard Dick Bondalie, End Stan Wacholz, Quarterback Larry Rice and Fullback Bob Sykes worked on the first team during preparations for the Stanford game. Expected to start again are End Ray Poznekoff, Center Keith Carpenter, Guard Vern Vallecamp and Halfbacks Bob Osborne and Gibby Mendonsa.

Defensively, Bronzen said that Halfback Matt Vujevich had earned a starting spot while Center Jack Carhart will be used at offensive end and Guard Dempsey Ferrier would get a crack at a starting linebacker position.

In addition to the new starters Bronzan thought Halfbacks Al Matthews showed well and promised the little Monterey speedster would be given ample opportunity to ramble on the Palo Alto turf.

The Spartan headman was concerned with the problem of bringing the Golden Raiders out of the dumps. He prescribed a heavy dose of contact work for the first three days of this week. The accent was not on technique, but on aggressiveness.

Spartan students registered Monday and Bronzan expected a sizeable turnout for the Spartan junior varsity which will have a six-game schedule. He said that he would cut the varsity squad to about 44 with the remainder slated to join the Jayvee group.

Four injuries, one serious, were reported from the USF game. Bruce Halladay, starting offensive guard and ace linebacker, received a knee injury which will keep him out of action five or six weeks. Quarterback Jerry Hamilton suffered a turned ankle, Tackle George Porter has a black eye and Tackle Jim Kajioka a broken nose and black eye. All but Halladay are expected to be ready for Stanford.

Quarterback Lynn Aplanalp, who missed the USF game, is expected to be ready Saturday, but will have to earn the starting spot from Rice, a sophmore who impressed Bronzan with his coolness and play selection.

SERVICE NOTES

Master Sgt. Leo Ryan, 771 S. Winchester Road, left Tuesday for Ft. Lawton, where he expects to be shipped overseas.

The Eldorado, commanded by Captain W. S. Heald, USN, has served as flagship of Vice Admiral Ingolf N. Kiland, Pacific Fleet Amphibious Force commander, since June.

The Eldorado has been in the Korean war zone longer than any ship now operating in that area. She participated in the initial amphibious assault landing at Inchon, Korea, a little over a year ago.

The ship was active in amphibious operations at Iwon, Wonsan, and three operations at Inchon. In January, she played an important part in the redeployment of United Nations troops from Inchon and five weeks later in the reoccupation of that port.

Grange Official Hits Allocation Of Materials

Harry Barnes, state executive committeeman of the California State Grange, told members of the Orchard City Grange Tuesday that agriculture was receiving far less than its share of critical goods. Barnes, reading from a legislative report concerning the national economic situation, stated that the army takes what it wants and civilians get what is left.

"Agriculture gets far less than its share because farm implement manufacturers cannot get enough steel. In addition, there is going to be a 25 percent cut in steel for these needs. Farmers lack machinery and fertilizer."

The state committeeman pointed out that farm income was gradually dropping. Continuing to read from the report, he said an amendment to the income tax law is pending action in the Legislature providing that no one would be required to pay tax on an equal trade. "The income tax would take effect only if there is a margin of profit.

Other items of the report included a comment on the rise of workman's compensation because of " . . . farm chiselers who allegedly fall off ladders deliberately in order to collect compensation."

Ed Standish, Pomona district deputy, was honored at the meeting.

Refreshments followed the business meeting. Melvin Blue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Blue, and home on leave from the Navy, was presented with a cake. Members of the county fair committee were also honored with a cake in appreciation of their work toward awards won by the Grange in the fair.

A Pomona Grange initiation for the 5th degree was announced for October 6 at Almaden school. A home economics meeting will be held at the Mt. View Grange Monday.

MORELAND TO OPEN MONDAY

Moreland Grammar School will reopen Monday after closing following a one day session on September 20. Incomplete construction in classrooms caused the delay in the opening date. The school will resume regular full-day sessions next week. Days lost due to the closing will be made up during the Thanksgiving vacation which has been cut to two days. Work to be completed includes painting and installation of floor tile in the kindergarten room and finishing work on various other rooms.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Johannes of Campbell are leaving Sunday for a trip east to visit friends and relatives. They will stop in North Carolina and return by way of Pennsylvania and Ohio. The couple expect to be gone for several weeks.

Corwin Olds will deliver the morning service at 11:00 and lunch will be served at 1 p.m. The event will mark a rally day for the Sunday school children and a get-acquainted day for all members of the church. BLOOD BANK TO VISIT CAMPBELL NEXT THURSDAY

The Red Cross Mobile Blood Bank will visit Campbell on the afternoon of October 4 to receive blood donations from residents of Campbell and the surrounding area. A new schedule of hours has been arranged to make donating easier for those who are working. The new schedule provides for donations between the hours of 3 and 6 p.m. The unit will be stationed in front of the parish house of the Campbell Methodist Church on E. Campbell Avenue. Quota for the visit has been set at 100 pints.

A local spokesman for the group sponsoring the Blood Bank's visit to Campbell stated that the poor turnout of blood donors at the last visit made it extremely difficult to procure the services of the unit again. "On June 7, we had a quota of 75 pints and yet only three were donated at that time. This poor showing has made it extremely difficult for us to persuade the unit to visit Campbell again. Unless we have a good showing next Thursday, we may find that the Blood Bank will refuse to visit again."

The spokesman stated that a large majority of all blood donated would be shipped directly to Korea for transfusions to wounded troops.

Blood received from donors will be utilized in one of two ways. It may be placed under refrigeration for a maximum period of 21 days and used for whole blood transfusions or it may be broken down for use as plasma.

"Actual donation of blood takes less than 10 minutes and the entire process, from registering to drinking the final cup of free coffee, often takes less than 20 minutes," a spokesman stated.

A corps of registered nurses will perform medical details necessary for donations and a physician will be on hand at all times. Free coffee and refreshments will be served to donors.

The booklet will be distributed by the Civilian Defense organization for Zone 13 (Campbell) of Santa Clara County, aided by the students of Campbell Union High School.

The booklet is designed for use by a completely untrained person and contains many helpful suggestions for use in an emergency. One will be distributed to each house and should be kept available at all times.

BEST BET for the opening grid tilt between the Bucs and the Lincoln Lions tonight is a close, well fought contest with neither side giving much to the other. Jim Muir says the boys are in fine spirit for the battle and if morale alone has anything to do with it, they should go all the way. Biggest question of the day is whether the Buc's cinderella line can hold off the rushing Lions. Line mentor George Miskulin says no one will punch a hole in the light line, which averages out at 168 lbs. Just in case of weakness, though, George has plenty of beef in the second and third squads. George says the Lions may go over his boys, or around them, but nobody will go through them.

The locals have shown a little weakness in pass defense and have had the book thrown at them this week in preparing for an aerial attack by their foes tonight.

The Lions, who trampled over the locals in the second round of last year's battle, 26-9, will be looking for another victory, but a vastly improved Buc squad with plenty of spirit might prove a surprise for the boys from Lincoln.

ANOTHER DATE to remember is the coming battle between the Buc Jayvee squad and Willow Glen next Thursday. Junior Morgan took over the coaching duties for the squad this week and has been working night and day to whip the boys into shape.

WONDER IF this will be another of Stanford's "freshman" years. Since '45, we have been hearing the Indian supporters sing the old "freshman" song of "just wait till next year ... we've got the best frosh team in the nation and when those boys come up it'll naturally be another Bowl team." Wonder what ever becomes of those frosh all-Americans? Could it be that Pappy has been stealing some of them? Another thing we've noticed about the season is that all the boys who sing blues about Stanford's traditional sloppy first half of the season never seem to realize that the boys from the farm are habitually slow starters and never get under way until they have played at least half of the contests and generally lost at least one. The same in reverse holds true for the Cal Bears. Pappy's boys are always rated among the top few in the nation until they muff that final one in the Bowl. This year, they should hold their top rating since they're prohibited from another bowl game by new PCC rules.

WATCH Bert Robinson's C and D hoop squads for a lot of action this season. Bert has a lot of work to put forth on his boys before the initial tilt with the Fremont outfit. In addition, the Indians will have the experience of their first game of the season before coming up against the locals. Bert says it's too early in the season to make a prediction, but you can be sure that whatever way the tide goes, the lightweights will provide a lot of action for the spectators.

C, D Hoop Squads Look Rough In Opening Practice

Buc Coach Bert Robinson is putting his C and D hoopsters through a series of strenuous drills in the fundamentals and individual practice in an attempt to whip them into shape for their first game with the Fremont Indians next Thursday.

Robinson declined to state what the 1951 prospects were, saying that it was too early in the year to make any forecasts.

The Ds will be bolstered by the return of two first string men, Gil Manriquez and Ronnie Arnoud. Robinson was favorable impressed y the work of the two forwards

The C squad is in slightly better shape with four first string men either coming up from the D's or returning from last years C squad. Gary Hoover, returning center from last year's C's has shown up good in the court, while Larry Andrews, last year's captin, will be on deck to fill the guard post.

Duarte, forward coming up from the D's, has shown promise in the forward spot, while Tony Manzoni, also up from the D's, remains a dark horse.

Robinson stated that the Indian five will be no pushover for the locals, pointing out that the Fremont men will have the experience of one game under their belts when they meet the Bucs Thursday. "This game will be no walkover for either of us, but we're going into it to win.

Goldie Gardner's Special M.G. To Be In Campbell

Campbell will be host this week to the famous Goldie Gardner Special M.G., holder of many world speed records and the first light car in the world to exceed 200 mph.

The special M.G. will be on display at McCoy Motor Co., today through Sunday, September 30. A sound motion picture of last month's record run will be shown free of charge along with several thrilling films on Sports Cars and road racing.

The special M.G., owned and driven by Lt.-Col. Goldie Gardner, last month added 16 national and International Class F. (up to 1500 cc) speed records to its already formidable list of accomplishments, by maintaining a speed of 139 mph for one hour.

Originally completed in 1938 in England, the car last month used the same four cylinder, 1250 cc engine found in the popular M.G. T.D. Sports Car, with a special supercharger designed by Gardner. The weight of the complete car, with driver, is 2,000 lbs. The special M.G. was literally built around Gardner, who is 6'3" in his socks, much the same as you or I would go to a tailer for fittings on a new suit. The body of the car was so constructed in order to provide the smoothest possible air flow over its surface and the driver must sit in a semi-reclining position with the back rest at an angle of 45 degrees. This, together with a space saving oblong steering wheel makes possible a very low body with a frontal area of only eleven square feet.

Nimrods Score Record Harvest Of Coastal Deer

California hunters scored a record annual harvest of deer in the early coastal season just ended, it is indicated by deer tags returned to the Department of Fish and Game.

More than 17,000 bucks were taken between August 7 and September 16, with late reports expected throughout the month. Final compilations are announced in January.

Incomplete tallies showed that Mendocino County held its place as the top deer hunting area in the early season. More than 3100 tags reported a buck taken there, compared to 2300 in 1950.

Hunters in Lake County accounted for at least 1850 deer with more than 1200 scored for Sonoma County.

BUCS READY FOR LION TILT; MUIR EXPRESSES SATISFACTION

Coach Jim Muir expressed confidence in the Buc's grid squad on the eve of their game with Lincoln tonight saying that the locals have shown vast improvement over early season practice. The boys have been getting tough drill on pass defense in anticipation of any aerial bombardment which the lions may toss at them.

The Campbell football mentor stated that the contest with Lincoln would be no pushover, but said that his boys should be high for the tilt. "Lincoln will be plenty tough. They've got a good ball club despite a few injuries which they have suffered during practice. Tonight's game should prove to be a close battle with no edge on either team."

Line coach Miskulin expressed satisfaction with his light line. Despite their 168 lb. average, Miskulin claims that no one will get through them. "They may go over us or around us, but they'll never get through us." The "cinderella line is backed up by two beef squads averaging in the 180's, so the locals should have plenty of strength in the forward wall.

Muir was favorably impressed by the performance of Lukehart on defense and Pratt on both defense and offense. "Ray Lerwill is a good man too, and may go both ways," he stated. Dick Farruggia will captain the locals in their first contest.

Probable starting line-up for the locals for the Lincoln contest will be:

Jim Overacker, 42, r end; Bob Banks, 13, l end; Paul Pratt, 36, r tackle; Dick Gleed, 31, l tackle; Dave Allen, 20, r guard; Don Lukehart, 16, l end; Ron Eddlemon, center.

Larry Sutton, 15, quarterback; Jim Namba, 26, r half; Tom Rhodes, 23, l half; Dick Farruggia, 25, fullback.

In spite of today's inflated prices, your telephone remains one of the lowest-cost items in the family budget.

FRIENDLY HELPER TO FAMILY BUDGETS
Your telephone dollars go farther today than they did in 1940

1. The way prices have skyrocketed on most items you buy to run your home, you might expect your telephone rates would have gone along, too. For, just as your costs have soared on things your family needs, so have our costs of providing telephone service—wages, taxes and materials. Yet, despite this, the increases in telephone rates do not even cover our increased wage costs alone.

2. You buy telephone service for just one thing—to have a quick way to keep in touch with other people. Today, in most places, you can call about twice as many telephones without a toll charge as in 1940. When you compare just that one great increase in value with the small increase in telephone rates, you can see you pay much less for service today—in terms of what the telephone can do for you.

3. You have more telephone service—and better telephone service—today than ever. And the value you're getting for your telephone dollar is due, basically, to just one thing. Over the years your telephone system has had the financial strength to attract the investors' money needed to build equipment and develop telephone service to a highly efficient level. And with a financially strong system, the telephone can continue to grow in value and usefulness to you and all the nation.

THE PEAR

By ALMA CROZIER

At seven the whistle calls us
To our places where we work,
We come with smiling faces,
No one will ever shirk.

For the pear is ripe and ready
To go into the can,
The peaches too, are needing care
Or they'll go into the cocktail pan.

The pears come rushing down
the belt
They fill our sinks so fast,
They rush right in all buttoned up
While the cans are coming past.

Some are long; some are short
Some are fat, some lean—
To get into a can all one size?
You know just what I mean!

There's little bits of peeling
Some, where a worm has been Some have bruised spots and stems growing
Oh, really, we cannot win!

For, just when we think we have it
The piece that fits won't do,
But that can won't wait, something else goes in.
And we feel badly, so would you.

Sometimes we haven't much fruit and so
Mrs. Souto checking cards for the girls
Mr. Hartwell walking steadily along.
Mr. Hansell comes in, he's a busy man
But has time for a word and a smile
He wants the pears canned on the line
So we have to work there a while.

Stella weighs the cocktail cans
with care
To see they don't come out light
When you open a can of diced fruit
You can see that it's all right.

The cocktail girls work very hard
But they sit upon a seat
They be using lots of Freezone,
But not upon their feet.
Mrs. Brown keeps busy 'tween tables one and two
All the girls like working for her
They can peaches each day and now its no play
Till called to some other part of the cannery.

The salad girls count the pieces
They put into the can,
No spots can be used, you see
And looks very nice when poured into a pan.

Rose sometimes cans peaches or pears on the line
So her girls can go for recess
Mrs. Fryer too helps us along lots of times
To make our cans look nicer,
I guess.

Neva is mighty helpful
She picks out cores and such
We all like to can when she's grading
For we don't have to worry so much.

Then the pear gallons for Loretta
Can be easy or terribly bad
For when the fruit isn't plentiful and good
It makes us kind of sad.

Mrs. Vita Brown works with might and main
To keep our dressing room clean
We give three cheers for her effort
It's from all of us, I mean.

The nurse is a lovely person
And kind as she can be
If anyone gets hurt or sick,
They go to her, you see

Guido is one of the bosses
And keeps so very clean
But Saturday was one of his bad days
When the pear peeligns were knee deep I mean.

Now Bob is a trouble shooter
When things go wrong with the can line
He fixes it up right handy
Soon all is running fine.

William Brewster, a leader on the Mayflower, in 1620, was a printer.

The grape girls have a mighty task
To pick the stems all out
They look and pick so very fast
Their heads are in a whirl, no doubt.

The pear machine girls work very fast
To make the register grow
For incentive pay makes fingers fly
We've tried it and we know.

The girls on the peach machine work hard too
The peach fuzz makes it bad
But on Friday when they get their checks
They are anything but sad.

Now I'd forgotten Mr. Spears
Who picks the fruit from the floor
Then when he comes down the aisle again
We've always dropped some more

If I were he I'd take my stick
And whack a head or two Then we'd hold more tightly to our fruit
Maybe learn a thing or two.

Now I'll always remember Wanda
As she counts one, two, three, four Drops the pear quarters in the can
If they are small she puts in one more.

The jeep drivers are a happy lot
There is a missing link
We could speak of mechanics and such
But this is getting too long, I think.

But all in all we like it
Most of cannery work is fun
And now my story is ended
With the setting of the sun.

The following is a list of all California towns incorporated as cities during period from July 1, 1945 to and including June 30, 1950.

This summary shows population as of April 1, 1950; date of incorporation; and, cost of street maintenance of each city from date of incorporation to June 30, 1950.

In this connection it will be noted that all first-period (June 30) expenses were considerably less than expenditures for subsequent fiscal year periods.

Data is not at hand which will permit of a definite analysis to determine causes for differences. Yet, it is presumed that conditions then prevaling in the several cities were somewhat analogous to conditions presently in effect in Campbell. Namely, streets are now in reasonable repair and costly renewals are not likely to be immediately necessary for some time to come.

It and several other tables will be contained in next week's continuation of this report entitled "Public Works" which will be published in next week's issue of the Campbell Press.

LIONS GET THREE NEW MEMBERS

Three new members were admitted to the Campbell Lions Club at a meeting held last Tuesday night in Martin's Restaurant. The new members were R. V. Jones, realtor; Joseph Tiknor, realtor; and Herb Brasch, salesman. The meeting was in the form of a "get acquainted group" and no further business was discussed. George Kolze presided over the meeting.

Government Curbs Halt Rosemary School Building

Government restrictions on use of steel will delay start of construction of the Rosemary School in Campbell Union School district to the first quarter of 1952 at least, Superintendent William C. Henley said today.

Henley said he had received a reply to a letter sent last July to the Federal Security Agency stating that steel for the last quarter of 1951 had been allocated. The agency "hoped" steel would be available for new projects in the first quarter of next year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Harmon Back From Tour Of Canada And U. S.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Harmon returned Wednesday from a three and a half week vacation through northwestern United States and Canada. During their trip, the Campbell couple visited Yellowstone, Glacier, Banff and Moraine Lake parks.

They stated that they were impressed by the friendliness and hospitality of the Canadian people. "We had postcards from people which we had met on our trip waiting for us on our return." They stated that the people seemed to think nothing was too much to offer tourists and vacationists. "We found motel and hotel accomodations very reasonable and exceptionally good."

Prices of food in restaurants were lower than food in comparable establishments in the United States, but, conversely, the prices of foodstuffs were most other commodities were higher than at home. "Some of the few items which we found to be cheaper were English bone china, leather goods, and woolen goods. The lower price on these commodities was due of course, to the absence of any duty which might be added to the same item in the United States."

The Harmons witnessed the impressive sight of a full moon over Lake Louise. Reflections of the moonlit glaciers were visible in the lake. They were also greatly impressed by the sight of glaciers along the highways in many of the parks.

They noticed the change in the time of harvesting grain as they motored further north. In northern Montana, harvesting was about half way completed, while in Alberta, harvesting had not yet begun. In one particular area, farmers were harvesting green oats to use as hay in order to save as much of the crop as possible before the frosts.

Banff, where the couple stayed for several days, was described as similar to a Swiss town.

While there, they noticed several deer wandering about the lawns of the townspeople.

The couple was often stopped along the highways by bears begging for food. At one point, they noticed a bear and two cubs who had learned to stand on the hind legs and beg.

They found the weather to be similar to that in Campbell with the exception of slightly colder nights. Roads were very good with few construction areas.

C of C Reviews Year's Work

Members of the Campbell C. of C. heard a report by the president and secretary reviewing the activities of the group to date at a general dinner meeting Wednesday night in Martin's Restaurant. Suggestions on new methods to raise money, exclusive of membership fees, were offered by members and were discussed by those present.

Plans for a summer celebration for next year were also discussed by the group.

B. J. Bush, District Governor, Speaks Before Rotary

Bernard J. Bush, Governor of he 155th district of Rotary International, spoke to members of the Campbell Rotary Club Monday at noon on the meaning of Rotary. In his topic, "Why Rotary," he stressed the basis of Rotary as fellowship. He mentioned some of the various aspects of Rotary in illustrating his talk.

"Community service,," which he cited as one of the aspects, "brings the club no material gain, but does much for the betterment of the community." He gave an example of the Garberville Rotary's activities, stating that for some time, residents of the community had seen numerous cases of people drowning while swimming. The club acted to correct this situation by holding classes in swimming instruction for people not only of the community but for the many visitors which this summer resort area hosts annually.

Bush also told his audience of the four-point program of the Rotary movement, which stresses as its goal, the fact that one can be ethical in business and succeed. He also emphasized the Rotary philosophy of "He profits most who serves best."

Bush also mentioned other aspects of Rotary including the vocational services and competitor relations. He stated that internationally, the club serves to surmount color, race, language and other difficulties. "The Rotary movement makes better relations between foreign countries. For example, the clubs report on areas of agreement between nations of the United Nations whereas, newspapers and other media publishing the news very often stress the disagreements. In addition to this, Rotary clubs sponsor the education of students of foreign countries when they study in countries other than that of their origin."

Bush further illustrated his talk with a report on the offer of the San Francisco Rotary Club to assist Japanese delegates to the recent peace conference, stating that the Rotary Clubs of Japan returned their offer with a gift of 500 tie clasps to San Francisco Rotarians.

'Crusade' Will Start In Local Schools Tuesday

Laurance J. Hill, chairman of the Crusade for Freedom in Campbell, stated that a program of education wil start in the various schools in the district Tuesday. "We plan to give the students a full program to educate them on the purposes and needs for the Crusade for Freedom and give each of them a chance to sign the Freedom Pledges and make contributions." Hill stated that the drive in the schools had been held up because many of the schools had not been open due to construction difficulties. Each school will handle its own program under the coordination of Hill. All schools in the Campbell high school district with the exception of Burbank, which will handle its own program, will be included in the drive.

Supervisors Veto Powers Appeal For Rezoning

Walter W. Powers, Cambrian property owner, lost a bid this week to have property located on the southeast corner of San Jose-Los Gatos Road rezoned for commercial use.

In making the decision, the County Board of Supervisors upheld a previous ruling of the planning commission. Powers contended that the corner was an excellent location for commercial development.

Secretary-director Nestor Barrett, of the planning commission, called the petition for rezoning "spot rezoning" and stated that the commission could find no need for a commercial corner at that location.

The board's denial of Subdividers Lionel J. Tilson and Phillip Sanfilippo's appeal of a like decision by the planning commission promoted the filing of a notice of appeal by the couple's attorney, Paul T. Gallagher. Gallagher filed a notice of appeal with the board of supervisors Wednesday asking that the board set a date for a public hearing on the appeal Monday.

The planning commission had rejected the third request for rezoning property belonging to Tilson and Sanfilippo several days ago. The subdividers were seeking to rezone a three acre triangle at the intersection of Saratoge and Quito roads for commercial use.

Department Grants Extra Funds For New Quito School

An overage in site development costs for the proposed Quito School of Campbell Union School District has been allowed by the State Department of Education, Superintendent William C. Henley reported today.

Approval for extra cost was given at a recent meeting of Henley school architects, and Paul Rivers, representative of the department's Division of School Planning. The overage was allowed because rolling ground of the site presents special construction problems.
